Notes
* Alexander Hubbald (1675) and John Carter 1703) both served as vicars of Parham as well at the same time as serving in Hacheston.
Samuel Tompson died in 1739. John Sparrow was appointed in the same year, then, when Hacheston was consolidated with Parham in 1753 , Sparrow was re-appointed to the new benefice, so Sparrow was appointed twice.
